

2009 Home Educators' Orientation

Home-Education 101: An Overview

The "Socialization" Myth

Legal Responsibilities of Home-Educator

Florida State Home Education Law 1002.41

Personal Evaluations, Portfolios & Testing

Test Preparation-Is it necessary?

Curriculum Options and Methods

Special Needs Students and Gifted

Teaching Multiple Age Groups

High-School Resources and Plan

Academic and Enrichment Programs

Associations : Home School Legal Defense Assoc.
Florida Parent Educators Assoc.

Pulling it all together with prayer

Update: Parental Rights—The Threat and The Solution

Location: Sheridan House Family Ministry-Family Resource Building

1700 S. Flamingo RD.

Davie, FL 33325

Just south of I-595 on the east side of Flamingo Road

Tuesday, August 25, 2009

6:30-9 PM

All Home-School Parents and Teenagers Welcome!!

Childcare NOT provided. Please no small children. We want to minimize distractions and do not have an area to accommodate children.

In order to keep the cost of this workshop to a minimum, we will not print out, but will email a packet for you to print and bring along with you, as soon as we receive your fee. If you'd like to make an additional offering to meet the expenses of this event, it would be greatly appreciated and can be included in your check or given the night of the workshop. Thank you!!!

If you are attending, Please:

- 1. RSVP: *Please "reply" to this email or to orientation@educationalrcb.org*
- 2. Mail you fee of $5.00 per Person or $10.00 per Family, (no small children), along with name, email address and phone contact to:
2124 N. 31 RD, Hollywood, FL 33021*

Equipping home-educators to run the race...

Teresa Diaz

Educational Resource Center of Broward

Email: teridiaz@educationalrcb.org

Visit: www.educationalrcb.org

